STUDENT PROFILES

LAMAN PANAHLI

ADA University Recipient of Graduate Assistantship

As a fresh graduate of Pedagogy faculty of Baku Engineering University, Laman had an extreme interest to the education sphere and wanted to continue her higher education. She would like to learn key points of management and apply them to the education field. As she has good research skills and participated in conferences for young researchers, Laman was awarded by "ADA University Recipient of Graduate Assistantship" scholarship of ADA University, that gave her a chance to get tuition fee waiver during the period of her studies.

ULKAR RASULOVA

Azerbaijan

Ulkar joins ADA with bachelor's degree from Khazar University in English language and literature. She is interested in various ways of learning and teaching foreign languages. Her experience in teaching students from different backgrounds led her to a thorough understanding of the role of individual's culture in learning a language. Ulkar believes that there is a growing need for trained and experienced professionals in both cultural and language studies and ADA is the best destination for this. Her future plans include working at one of the local universities, sharing her knowledge with future generations and helping immigrants through their language difficulties.
