STUDENT PROFILES

ALI TAGHIYEV

ADA University Recipient of Graduate Assistantship

As a fresh graduate of ADA University, Ali told that the major in International Studies gave the widest vision possible, critical, and analytical thinking ability that no other majors would. During his bachelor studies and internship period Ali discovered his great enthusiasm in managing and leading projects. He was committed to get specialized in the public policymaking and economic development sector and be involved in the development projects in my country aimed at creating quality and inclusive social, economic, and political environment. This was one of the defining reasons that motivates Ali to apply for the Master of Public Administration program at ADA.

ILAHA IBRAHIMOVA

Azerbaijan

Ilaha also had International Relations background as she got her bachelors' degree in IR from University of Economics 2 years ago. During her bachelor studies she actively participated in research and internship projects. After graduation she started her career as a consultant for operational support services at UNDP Azerbaijan. Last year she got new position and currently working as a National Project Officer of UNDP-GEF Kura II Project. For the reason that Ilaha has committed herself to the mission of applying her knowledge and overall capabilities in the direction of enlightening each global citizen and citizens of her country from the perspective of human development, MPA program can give her important knowledge and experience on this. She strongly believes that this MA program will enable her to achieve further goals and will also be a great assist to her career.
