

INSTRUCTOR BIOGRAPHY

Hugh Cameron

Hugh Cameron, an instructor with TwentyEighty Strategy Execution, is a high-technology executive and entrepreneur. He founded Camtech Inc., a clinical engineering company that incorporated a diverse group of projects from impedance cardiography in healthcare and speech intelligibility to a law enforcement computerized-evidence-analysis system.

Mr. Cameron started a software development company, CamCom Inc., which specialized in healthcare regulatory software and service delivery systems. Mr. Cameron has also provided consulting services such as accident/incident investigation and business process analysis. In addition, Mr. Cameron applied for and received a National Institutes of Health Small Business Innovation Research Grant. After earning his M.B.A., Mr. Cameron took a consulting position with a Fortune 500 company where he analyzed, organized, and set up the company's national and international service groups.

Mr. Cameron is Project Management Professional (PMP)[®] certified by the Project Management Institute (PMI)[®]. He is co-author of MindManager for Dummies and is the technical editor for PMP[®] Certification for Dummies. He holds a degree in clinical engineering from Purdue University and an M.B.A. from Indiana Wesleyan University.